The Olympic Games (Part Two) - Queen Elizabeth Park, Stratford

CHEQUES AND FOOD CHOICES TO ARRIVE BY Sun 16th Jun

To celebrate this year's Olympic Games in Paris, it's time to return to Stratford and discover where the Games were held some 12 years ago. There's the Olympic Stadium, now home for West Ham United. There's the Velodrome and the Aquatics Centre where we'll remember the successes of Chris Hoy and Rebecca Adlington. But what happened to the Olympic Village? Or the broadcasting centre? Explore the new development of London's largest park since Hyde Park; enjoy the flowers and see the legacy of the greatest sporting event on the Planet.
